

PROCLAMATION
50th Anniversary – Fanshawe College
September 2017

WHEREAS, Fanshawe College of Applied Arts and Technology opened in London on September 5, 1967 with 720 students, under the governance of the Fanshawe College Board of Governors, the College's campuses have served hundreds of thousands of students since its inception 50 years ago and continues to serve a diverse and steadily-increasing student population each year; and

WHEREAS, Fanshawe College is now the sixth largest college in the Province of Ontario, serving more than 21,000 full-time students and 22,000 part-time registrations annually, including more than 3,500 international students from more than 70 countries; and

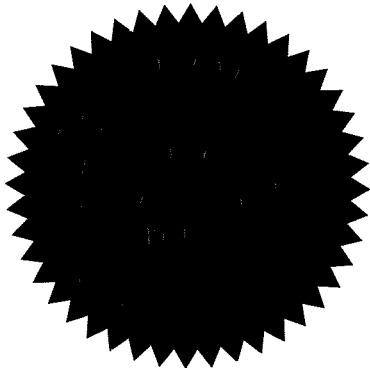

WHEREAS, Fanshawe College adds more than $1.6 billion annually to the economy of Southwestern Ontario and provides higher education, workforce development, economic development and lifelong learning opportunities to students of all ages who come from all backgrounds and all walks of life; and

WHEREAS, Fanshawe College offers high-quality educational opportunities at affordable tuition rates for all residents of London and Middlesex County to prepare graduates for successful careers; and

WHEREAS, all Fanshawe College faculty, support staff and administrators began celebrating the College's 50th Anniversary on January 1, 2017 and will acknowledge the 50th Anniversary of the official opening of Fanshawe College of Applied Arts and Technology in September 2017;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Mayor Greg Currie, do hereby celebrate Fanshawe College and encourage all citizens to join the Town of Aylmer in recognizing the tremendous influence Fanshawe College has had on our community.

Dated at the Town of Aylmer
in the County of Elgin
this 11th day of September, 2017

Mayor Greg Currie